Numb. 5526

The London Gazette.

79

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday March 12. to Saturday March 16. 1717.

St. James's, March 12.

THIS Day the following humble Addreſs of the Univerſity of Cambridge was preſented to His Majeſty, by the Reverend Mr. Grigg Vice-Chancellor of that Univerſity, accompanied by ſeveral Heads of Houſes, introduced by the Right Honourable James Stanhope, Eſq; one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State; and they had all the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Univerſity of Cambridge.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Maſters and Scholars of your Univerſity of Cambridge, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our moſt hearty Congratulations for your ſafe Return to your Kingdom of Great Britain: Duty accompanied with the ſincereſt Gratitude for thoſe extraordinary Inſtances we have received of your Royal Favour and Bounty, incites us to appear amongſt the foremoſt of your loyal Subjects on this happy Occaſion.

Permit us, Great Sir, with the utmoſt Sincerity to profeſs, that our Principles animate us with a ſtedfaſt Loyalty to your ſacred Majeſty, our only Rightful and Lawful Sovereign; that they imprint on our Minds the Obligation we are under of adhering firmly to our Excellent Conſtitution in Church and State, of which your Majeſty is the great Defender; that they inſpire us with a hearty Concern for the Welfare of our Country, the Intereſt of which you have ſo glorioufly advanced; and an univerſal good Will towards all our fellow Subjects, of whom you are the common Father.

We cannot therefore but expreſs our utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the unnatural and wicked Deſigns of ſome of your Majeſty's Subjects, who having failed in their late pernicious Attempts to ſet up a Popiſh Pretender to your Majeſty's Crown, are ſtill endeavouring to renew the ſame by the Support of an Invaſion from Abroad.

We hoped that as your Majeſty had ſubdued the moſt obſtinate by the Force of your Arms, the Remainder would have rendred themſelves proper Objects of your Mercy; and we think it an Inſtance of the higheſt Ingratitude, as well as Diſloyalty in them, to call in a Foreign Power to diſturb the Peace and Tranquility of your Reign, after they have had ſo great Experience of the Lenity and Indulgence of it: Nor can we, without juſt Indignation, reflect upon the falſe Principles which have been lately advanced by thoſe who have the Preſumption to maintain, that all who adhere to our happy Eſtabliſhment in Church and State, are thereby excluded out of the Chriſtian Church, and deprived of all the Benefits and Privileges of our moſt holy Religion.

Our moſt grateful Acknowledgments are for ever due to your ſacred Majeſty for the happy Influences of your auſpicious Reign, and for their having been derived and continued to us during your late Abſence, by the wiſe and juſt Adminiſtration of his Royal Highneſs: And ſince the moſt ſuitable Return of Duty and Gratitude we can make, is to approve our ſelves to be faithful Subjects; we humbly crave Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall uſe our utmoſt Endeavours in the Station we are in, to defend your Right and Title to the Government of theſe Realms; to inſtil into thoſe who are committed to our Care, true Principles of Loyalty and Obedience, and to make them duly ſenſible that the Preſervation of all that is valuable to us and our Poſterity, depends, under God, upon the firm Eſtabliſhment of your Majeſty's juſt Power and Authority over us, and the tranſmitting it down in a conſtant Succeſſion of Proteſtant Princes in your illuſtrious Family, to future Generations.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Anſwer.

I Have taken all Opportunities of ſhewing my good Intentions to the Univerſity.

Your giving me ſuch full and ample Aſſurances of your Duty and Loyalty, is a great Satisfaction to me. I hope you will be ever mindful of them, and by acting accordingly in your ſeveral Stations, enable me to ſhew the true Regard I have for your Learned Body.

They afterwards waited on their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, and the young Princeſſes; being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Hertford, and had the Honour to kiſs their Royal Highneſſes Hands.

Dreſden, March 17. The Letters from Warſaw of the 10th, which came in to Day, give no certain Account whether the King will leave that Place before or after Eaſter, but 'tis not doubted he will be here before the Fair of Leipſick, at which Time 'tis generally thought that the Electoral Prince may return to this Place from Italy. 'Tis adviſed from Warſaw that Collonel Oberbeeck, who was condemned by a Court Martial to have his Head cut off, had obtained, as an Act of Grace, that he might be Shot; and he was accordingly executed in that Manner on the 6th Inſtant.

Hambourg, March 19. The Duke Adminiſtrator of Holſtein ſent one of his Counſellours hither this Morning to notify, that his Highneſs had given up the Adminiſtration, the young Duke Charles Frederick having been declared